

Pix in the City Competition Winner

FIONA LINTON from haa design limited has a keen set of blinkers, recognising the photo in the last edition of Glasgow Business Magazine as the miniature replica of The Statue of Liberty on top of the City Chambers.

Fiona is now the happy recipient of a hamper of chocolate treats, generously donated by Tunnocks as well as a tour of the world-famous Tunnock's bakery in 2012.

Known as Truth, the statue is one of three figures making up part of the Jubilee Pediment on the Renaissance Classicism building. Although to a lot of Glaswegians it's simply known as "the wee statue of Liberty".

Winner of the Pix in the City Competition, Fiona Linton of haa design limited receives her Tunnock's hamper from Chamber Chief Executive, Stuart Patrick.
